

I appreciate the stringency of the no-call list law in Wisconsin. I do not support making my phone line available to solicitors and do not want to see the Wisconsin law changed in favor of businesses and other soliciting agencies. Let the popularity of the law speak as a testament to my feelings and the feelings of others throughout the state.

Sincerely,
Amy Prevost